GIFTED MISSOURI WOMAN PAINTS LIKENESS OF WILLIAM F. MCCOMBS

Mrs. Harvat and her portrait of William F. McCombs.

Mrs. George Harvat of St. Louis, an artist whose portraits have attracted the attention of critics in many art centers, has just completed a likeness of William F. McCombs, the Democratic national chairman. Mrs. Harvat is a cousin of Mrs. McCombs, who was Miss Dorothy Williams of Washington and St. Louis, and is well acquainted with Mr. McCombs, who is a native of Arkansas.

Social and Personal

Quiet Rectory Wedding.
Miss Helen Gordon, daughter of Samuel W. Gordon, now deceased, and Mrs. Mary Hoff Gordon, was married at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening to James J. Coughlin. The ceremony was performed in the rectory of the church of the Immaculate Conception by the Rev. P. H. McDermott in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin left on No. 12 for Washington and other eastern cities to spend their honeymoon of ten days or more and upon their return they will reside here.

The bride is a beautiful young lady and has a wide circle of friends, while the bridegroom is an enterprising young newspaper man on the editorial staff of the Telegram. They are a popular young couple whose legions of friends extend heartfelt congratulations and wish them bon voyage on the matrimonial sea.

Announcements reading as follows have been sent out:
Mrs. Mary Hoff Gordon announces the marriage of her daughter Helen Ursula to Mr. James Joseph Coughlin Wednesday, June twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and fourteen. Clarksburg, West Virginia. At home after July sixth, 205 Hedge street, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Enthusiastic Audience Listens to Choir

ROYAL WELSH LADIES' CHOIR PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE AT CHURCH BENEFIT.

THE Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir will appear in this city on the Lincoln Chautauqua program the fourth day, afternoon and night. Oliver McWilliams, who has heard this company and practically all of the big Chautauqua talent in this nation for the last seven years, says, "The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir is the biggest Chautauqua entertainment that has ever been offered in this country."

The Evanston Daily News of May 13, 1914, says: It was a most enthusiastic audience which listened to the concert given last night by the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir in the Woman's Club Auditorium. From the moment the curtain rose for the first time to the very end the people there enjoyed the evening.

The costumes worn in the first part of the program were typical of the novelty of the entertainment. The interesting Welsh dress and the knitting work which occupied the fingers of the singers as they sat upon the stage produced an informality in the atmosphere and created a feeling of friendship between the two groups separated by the footlights which insured a successful evening.

There were many Welsh airs on the program which aroused enthusiasm, especially in those whose forefathers lived in beautiful Wales, an enthusiasm which endured even after the closing of the program.

One number which was not written on the program, but which was thoroughly appreciated, was a solo by Miss Edith Maldwyn Jones, a favorite with Evanstonians. She, as indeed were all those on the program, was generous enough to respond to the wishes of the audience for an encore.

The closing number, a Welsh air, the Welsh national anthem and "The Star Spangled Banner" were a fitting climax to a pleasant concert.
